

The concept of epic storytelling is to offer an open platform for artists and riders who give their heart and soul for lasting impressions in word, action and image - Heartcore. Our acclaimed storybook is motivated by the quest for balance and freedom as it relates to people the world over. The aim is to join individuals, groups, companies and councils at a roots level to develop the full scope of action lifestyle facilities, products and services. Epic story, photography and viewpoints are presented online and in printed collectables to drive future dreaming. Inspire, assist and promote further development of epic living. The combined vision is to create Epic Balance Centres for artistic expression, youth development, adult lifestyle maintenance, social recreation and global regeneration. Subscribe to epicbalance and gain the respect of your support. Receive an insiders look at how projects come together through the local crew and their storytellers. Live an epic lifestyle with them to uncover the spectacles of our international action sport scene. Member lounge grants access to free-view Epic Journal PDF editions and story previews. Plus view-first news, images, profiles and project updates. Heartcore riders, writers, artists, photographers, comedians and back-end-crew can also be found on facebook, instagram or twitter.
